

Faceting Classes

“Turning Pretty Rocks into Pretty Awesome Gemstones”

The Columbia-Willamette Faceter's Guild in conjunction with the Rice Northwest Museum offers:

BEGINNING GEMSTONE FACETING

Students are introduced to the theory and techniques of faceting gemstones and gain sufficient knowledge to continue faceting on their own. During the course, students will facet one or two gemstones with material and equipment provided by the Faceter's Guild.

WHERE: Rice Museum Faceting Lab

CLASS FEES: $135.00 per person

20 hours of instruction consists of 5 classes, from 1 pm until 5 pm:

5 weeks – all Saturdays

or

3 weeks - 3 Saturdays and 2 Sundays

You can cut, polish, and keep your own gemstone.

CLASSES 2013 - 2014

First session:	September 14, 21, 28 – October 5, 12
Second session:	October 26, 27 – November 2, 3, 9
Third session:	Nov. 23, Dec. 7, 14, 28 – Jan. 4, 2014
Fourth session:	Jan. 18, 25 – Feb. 1, 8, 15, 2014
Fifth session:	March 1, 2, 8, 9 & 15, 2014
Sixth session:	March 29 – April 5, 12, 26, & May 3, 2014
Seventh session:	May 17, 18, 31 – June 1, 7, 2014

Please see Melena Wallace or Catie Witherspoon at the Rice Museum for more details.